

RJES

Rangsit Journal of Educational Studies
Volume 6, Number 2, July-December 2019

	Page
Contents

Editorial Board	i

Table of Contents	iii

Note from Editor in Chief	v

A Study of the Relationship Between Teachers' Perceptions Towards Professional Development and their Job Satisfaction at Naung Taung Monastic School in Hopong, Southern Shan State, Myanmar	1-9
Khun Htike Aung Po Watana Vinitwatanakhun

Preservice Teachers' Beliefs about Mathematics Education: Implications for Future Classroom Instruction	10-23
Eliseo P. Marpa Jerry B. Tolentino

The Use of Group Investigation Technique to Enhance the English Speaking Skills of Grade Six Bhutanese Students	24-33
Gaki Om Nipaporn Chalermnirundorn

The Development of a Reading Comprehension Model by Using Mind Mapping with "Edmodo" Program for First-Year English Major of Uttaradit Rajabhat University	34-43
Pronpat Rittichai Bamrung Torat

Strategic Instructional Leadership Characteristics and Senior School Administration
Competencies for a Disruptive Social Environment 44-54

Watana Vinitwatanakhun
Sattapong Sawatsupaphon

Designing a Professional Development Program for English Teachers: Insights from the Lower Mekong Initiative 55-67

Apiwan Nuangpolmak

Learning Art and Culture of Phra Nakhon Si Ayutthaya by Electronic Book 68-75

Pratoomtong Trirat
Sakda Sakonthawat
Nattawat Khanachan
Nijira Bumroonggit
Techameth Pianchana

Global Education: Important Focus for 21st Century Curriculum 76-81

Jamie Wallin
